COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, CENTRAL DISTRICT

KATHLEEN LILLIAN BRENNAN
DE JESUS,

Case No. 18STPT03325

Petitioner,

Application for Order for Service by Publication;
Points and Authorities;
Order for Service by Publication

vs.

PATRICK MARTIN O'HAGAN,

Respondent.

_____)

COMES NOW THE PETITIONER, KATHLEEN LILLIAN BRENNAN DE JESUS, who submits the Application for Order for Service by Publication.

FACTS OF THE CASE

This case is related to a Petition to Establish Parental Relationship, as described in the Petition to Establish Parental Relationship.

REQUEST

Petitioner has been unable to effect service of process on the named Respondent in the above-captioned case. Petitioner hereby requests that the Court issue an Order for Service by Publication for a minimum period of once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks in the online legal notice publication, Global Legal Notices LLC ®, a website of general circulation in Ireland and surrounding regions which specializes in service by publication and which provides numerous benefits over traditional print newspapers. Their publication policy is to publish the Order, any notices, and all court-issued documents continuously for a period of four (4) consecutive months, which exceeds statutory requirements. Print newspapers in Ireland will not publish legal notices as such practice is not set forth in Irish law and is contrary to public policy.

ARGUMENT

Petitioner has attempted unsuccessfully to serve the Respondent utilizing traditional service of process methods. Respondent has made himself unavailable for service of process, as demonstrated in the attached Declaration in Support of Petitioner's Application for Service by Publication executed by Nelson Tucker (Exhibit "A") showing the steps taken to locate the Respondent in Ireland.

The most practical available alternative method of service is service by publication. However, newspapers in Ireland do not allow for publication of legal notices related to cases originating in the United States. The only known method for service by publication in Ireland is through Global Legal Notices® which provides a more thorough method to give actual notice to the Respondent, as described on their legal notice website at www.GlobalLegalNotices.com.

This method allows for a greater opportunity to give actual notice to the Respondent than service by publication in a traditional newspaper. It provides publication of the Court Order, plus the entire set of Court-issued documents. Further, the publication period exceeds the customary once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks by continually publishing the documents for an indefinite period, as allowed by law or necessity. In addition, a Google search by the Respondent's name and country will typically appear on page one of the Google search after approximately five (5) days, thus, providing a greater opportunity to give actual notice to the respondent.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

The U.S. Supreme Court in Mullane v. Central Hanover Trust & Bank Co., 22 ILL.339, U.S. 306, 70 S. Ct. 652, 94 L. Ed. 865 (1950), found that, "It is a logical step forward in the evolution of civil procedure that the use of new technologies in common communication be utilized."

U.S. courts have reasoned that service by publication on foreign defendants is permitted under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 4(F)(3). Rule 4 allows service of process on a foreign individual:

(1) by internationally agreed upon means of service reasonably calculated to give notice; (2) by a reasonably calculated method as prescribed by the country's law for service for general actions or as the foreign authority directs to a letter rogatory; or (3) by other means not prohibited by international agreement. Because the 1993 amendments to FRCP 4(F) urge that FRCP (4)(3) be construed liberally, the courts have interpreted FRCP 4(F)(3) as authorizing them to utilize technological advancements for serving foreign defendants.

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4((3)(1) provides that "Service of an individual . . . may be effected in any judicial district of the United States pursuant to the law of the state in which the district court is located . . ."

Further, California Code of Civil Procedure §415.50 provides for service by publication in compliance with Government Code §6064.

The challenge facing Petitioner in this case is there are no traditional newspapers in Ireland that will allow for publication of legal notices which originate in courts in the United States.

CONCLUSION

Global Legal Notices® offers an improved method of providing actual notice to a Respondent of a pending lawsuit while satisfying the Court's requirements for service by publication.

It is widely held that service by publication has a limited success rate in providing actual notice to a defendant or respondent that a legal case is pending. Yet, courts routinely issue an order allowing for service by publication in a newspaper, either print or online, as a last resort method to complete service of process.

Wherefore, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court issue an Order for Service by Publication in the instant case.

Respectfully submitted,

Meisa Barn, Attorney for Petitioner

IT IS SO ORDERED THAT service of the Petition, Summons and all court-issued documents in the case De Jesus v. O'Hagan, Case No.18STPT03325, be published in Global Legal Notices for a period of four (4) consecutive weeks and that Proof of Publication be filed with this court.

and service by mail or personal service as well as by mail or

In addition, the process server will make best efforts to inform Respondent's brother that the court has authorized service in this way and that Respondent is obligated to appear or his default may be entered. These efforts must be laid out in the proof of service.

NOTICE: If you have a child from this relationship, the court is required to order child support based upon the income of both parents. Support normally continues until the child is 18. You should supply the court with information about your finances. Otherwise, the child support order will be based upon information supplied by the other parent. Any party required to pay child support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal" rate, which is currently 10 percent.
