STANDARD FAMILY LAW RESTRAINING ORDERS

Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from:

1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court;
2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children;
3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and
4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay an attorney to help you or to pay court costs.

NOTICE—ACCESS TO AFFORDABLE HEALTH INSURANCE: Do you or someone in your household need affordable health insurance? If so, you should apply for Covered California. Covered California can help reduce the cost you pay towards high quality affordable health care. For more information, visit www.coveredca.com. Or call Covered California at 1-800-300-1506.

WARNING—IMPORTANT INFORMATION
California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property.

ÓRDENES DE RESTRICCIÓN ESTÁNDAR DE DERECHO FAMILIAR

En forma inmediata, usted y su cónyuge o pareja de hecho tienen prohibido:

1. llevarse del estado de California a los hijos menores de las partes, o solicitar un pasaporte nuevo o de repuesto para los hijos menores, sin el consentimiento previo por escrito de la otra parte o sin una orden de la corte;
2. cobrar, pedir prestado, cancelar, transferir, deshacerse o cambiar el nombre de los beneficiarios de cualquier seguro u otro tipo de cobertura, como de vida, salud, vehículo y discapacidad, que tenga como beneficiario(s) a las partes y su(s) hijo(s) menor(es);
3. transferir, gravar, hipotecar, ocultar o deshacerse de cualquier manera de cualquier propiedad, inmueble o personal, ya sea comunitaria, cuasicomunitaria o separada, sin el consentimiento escrito de la otra parte o una orden de la corte, excepto en el curso habitual de actividades personales y comerciales o para satisfacer las necesidades de la vida; y
4. crear o modificar una transferencia no testamentaria de manera que afecte la asignación de una propiedad sujeta a transferencia, sin el consentimiento por escrito de la otra parte o una orden de la corte. Antes de que se pueda eliminar la revocación de una transferencia no testamentaria, se debe presentar ante la corte un aviso del cambio y hacer una entrega legal de dicho aviso a la otra parte.

Cada parte tiene que notificar a la otra sobre cualquier gasto extraordinario propuesto por lo menos cinco días hábiles antes de realizarlo, y rendir cuenta a la corte de todos los gastos extraordinarios realizados después de que estas órdenes de restricción hayan entrado en vigencia. No obstante, puede usar propiedad comunitaria, cuasicomunitaria o suya separada para pagar a un abogado que lo ayude o para pagar los costos de la corte.

AVISO—ACCESO A SEGURO DE SALUD MÁS ECONÓMICO:
¿Necesita seguro de salud a un costo asequible, ya sea para usted o alguien en su hogar? Si es así, puede presentar una solicitud con Covered California. Covered California lo puede ayudar a reducir el costo que paga por seguro de salud asequible y de alta calidad. Para obtener más información, visite www.coveredca.com. O llame a Covered California al 1-800-300-0213.

ADVERTENCIA—INFORMACIÓN IMPORTANTE
De acuerdo a la ley de California, las propiedades adquiridas por las partes durante su matrimonio o pareja de hecho en forma conjunta se consideran propiedad comunitaria para fines de la división de bienes que ocurre cuando se produce una disolución o separación legal del matrimonio o pareja de hecho. Si cualquiera de las partes de este caso llega a fallecer antes de que se divida la propiedad comunitaria de tenencia conjunta, el destino de la misma quedará determinado por las cláusulas de la escritura correspondiente que describen su tenencia (por ej., tenencia conjunta, tenencia en común o propiedad comunitaria) y no por la presunción de propiedad comunitaria. Si quiere que la presunción comunitaria quede registrada en la escritura de la propiedad, debería consultar con un abogado.

NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. FAMILY CENTERED CASE RESOLUTION PROCESS GENERAL INFORMATION

Family law cases include divorce, legal separation, nullity, parentage, and domestic violence. Detailed information about each type of family law case can be found on the San Diego Superior Court's website (www.sdcourt.ca.gov) and the California Judicial Council's website (www.ca.courts.gov). These websites provide answers to frequently asked questions, terms and definitions used in family law cases, forms with step-by-step instructions, local and state rules of court, and information on where to find help.

CASE RESOLUTION PROCESS & CONFERENCES

All family law cases are governed by the Family Centered Case Resolution Process. In San Diego, when one or both parties have an attorney, the court will set a Family Centered Case Resolution Conference (FRC). An FRC is a hearing at which the parties, their attorneys, and a judicial officer work together to develop a plan for managing the case and resolving issues as quickly, fairly, and efficiently as possible. When both parties are self-represented litigants (SRL), the court will set a Self-Represented Family Case Resolution Conference (SFRC). The court automatically sets the initial FRC/SFRC. A request for an FRC/SFRC earlier than or in addition to the one set by the court can be made by ex parte application.

- FRC. Attendance at the FRC is mandatory either in person or by telephone. Appearance by telephone is made through Court Call (www.courtcall.com or (888) 882-6878) and does not require a prior court order. Both attorneys and SRLs must be familiar with the case, prepared to discuss the party's positions on all issues, and enter into stipulations where possible. The hearing will typically end with a written case resolution order signed by the judicial officer. This order will provide an easily accessible written record of the decisions made at the FRC, facilitate future case management planning, and minimize disputes over previous decisions.
- SFRC. An SFRC is similar to an FRC except the SRLs meet first with a Family Law Facilitator (FLF) in person, not by telephone. The Facilitator will help the parties correct any procedural deficiencies and negotiate a full or partial settlement of their case when possible. If the parties reach a settlement, the Facilitator will assist in preparing a judgment which the parties can take into court that day, meet with the judicial officer, and have the judgment signed. If a trial is requested, the parties will go into the courtroom to have the judicial officer set case deadlines and a trial date. Each SRL is to bring copies of their paystubs for the last two months and their last two years of income tax returns to the SFRC.

CASE RESOLUTION INFORMATION & LOCAL RESOURCES

- Summary of Case Process. The Judicial Council form, Legal Steps for a Divorce or Legal Separation (JC Form #FL-107-INFO), provides an overview of the legal steps for a divorce, important notices, statewide resources, and services available at all California courts. The form is available online or in any of the court's business offices.
- Legal Advice. If you want to consult with or hire an attorney but do not know anyone, you can contact the San Diego County Bar Lawyer Referral Service at www.sdcba.org or (800) 464-1529. If you would like to be represented by an attorney but cannot afford one, you can contact the Legal Aid Society at www.lasds.org or (877) 534-2524, or the San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program at www.sdvlp.org or (619) 235-5656, to inquire into your eligibility for low cost or free legal services.
- Procedural Assistance. If you do not have an attorney, FLF can provide you with general legal information, help fill out court forms, and explain procedures. FLF is located at every division of the court. Both one-on-one services and group workshops are offered. The services are free but available on a first-come, first-served basis. Detailed information about locations, days and hours of service, and types of services available is on the court's website.
- Settlement Opportunities.
 - Child Custody. Before any court order can be made on a disputed child custody or visitation issue, the parties must participate in a child custody recommending counseling session with a court counselor from Family Court Services (FCS) or stipulate to private mediation at the parties' expense. For additional information, view the FCS Orientation video on the court's website.
 - Mandatory Settlement Conference (MSC). Before any trial, parties with attorneys will participate in an MSC. The purpose of the MSC is to informally discuss the disputed issues and facts in the case with a qualified family law attorney appointed by the court to act as a neutral third party. The goal is to reach a signed settlement agreement on some or all of the disputed issues without going through a time-consuming and expensive trial. There is no charge for the settlement conference. Cases where both parties are SRLs do not participate in an MSC. Settlement opportunities are at the SFRC, discussed above.
 - Private Resources. Mediation, collaborative law, and other types of settlement resolutions are also available from any number of private business at the parties' own cost. The court does not provide a list of these outside resources nor endorse any private business.
- Domestic Violence (DV) Services. DV clinics are located in each division of the court. The downtown clinic is in the Madge Bradley court located at 1409 4th Avenue and not in the Family Court located at 1555 6th Avenue. The clinics provide free assistance in preparing court forms to obtain or respond to a request for a DV restraining order. Comprehensive information about DV, including forms and local shelters, is on the court's website. The domestic violence hotline number is (800) 799-SAFE ((800) 799-7233).
- Personal Contact Information. Every party is obligated to keep the court advised of their current mailing address and other contact information. Do this by completing and filing the Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact Information form (JC Form #MC-040), available online or in any of the court's business offices.

NOTE: This form is intended to provide only general information. It is not legal advice, and should not be used as a substitute for legal advice from an attorney licensed by the State Bar of California. If you have any questions about your legal rights, you should talk to an attorney. Also, the San Diego Superior Court does not control or maintain the websites on this form and cannot be responsible for the accuracy of the information or content they contain. In addition, the content of a website may change, and the court would not necessarily be aware of the change. NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. Some changes may require the agreement of your partner or spouse or a court order.

The original response must be filed in the court with proof of service of a copy on Petitioner.
