Judge Abstance,

This is the information I received regarding service in Honduras.

It appears that online publication would be the most cost efficient method and would respectfully request we be allowed to serve in that manner. There are no allegations against the defendant mother.

Hello Susanna,

We will be glad to assist you with a service of process in Honduras. If you don't have an address for the respondent/defendant, we can assist with a locate investigation. The fee is USD$895.00.

Below are your service of process options.

- Formal service pursuant to Letters Rogatory which is a formal request from your court seeking judicial assistance from the courts of Honduras. This method allows for the judgment to be enforced and assets attached in Honduras. The total turnaround time is typically 6-10 months due to the diplomatic channels through which it must pass. Our fee is USD$1,475.00 plus the Embassy Fee of USD$2,275.00. This method requires translation and we offer translation at $.38 per word.
- Informal service by private process server. It is best to check with your local court to ensure that this method is allowed; a court order is sometimes required prior to the service. The typical turnaround time is typically 3-4 weeks, depending on the availability of the defendant. Translation is optional, but highly recommended. Using this method is faster but the defendant may be able to challenge enforcement of judgment if assets are attached in Honduras. Our fee is USD$1,495.00.

All we will need to get started is for you to send us the service documents combined into one PDF, the service address and name of the defendant and I will email you an invoice. Please indicate the method of service you are requesting

IMPORTANT: Please DO NOT use this e-mail address to report child or adult abuse or neglect. The statewide, 24/7 abuse/neglect hotline number for reporting is 1-888-CARE-4-US (1-888-227-3487). Non-emergency reports of abuse or neglect can be made via the SCDSS webpage at www.dss.sc.gov. For emergencies, please contact 911 or your local law enforcement office
